WILL THEY KEEP OPEN?

The Five Barkeepers Who Applied For License To Retail.

Some of Greensboro's barkeepers are about to make a last effort to continue business.

A Telegram reporter, hearing a current report that those barkeepers who applied to the board of aldermen at last Friday night's meeting for license to retail whiskey in the city, had decided to keep their places of business open until the next meeting of the board when some action will be taken on the applications. visited each of the barroms to get the report either corroborated or denied.

Mr. Newcomb, whom we saw first, in answer to a question, first said that it was his purpose and program to continue business until the board should act upon his application, but later said that he had not decided what course he would pursue.

Mr. Tredway was not in, but a clerk said he thought the bar would close next Friday night.

At King & Oakley's it was said that they were undecided.

R. P. Gorrell was out and a clerk refused to make a statement.

At C. H. Coble's a clerk said he thought it was the intention of all those who applied, to keep open.

It will be remembered that, under the rules, the applications for license were tabled for two weeks. The barkeepers usually file their applications about the first of June, but, on account of the dispensary law, they did not apply until the 23rd. Their present licens s expire July 1st.

ANOTHER RABID DOG.

W. S. Lyon Kills The Third Of The Season.

The maddog crop seems to have been a great success this year and the harvest in and around Greensboro bids fair to be bountiful.

W. S. Lyon this morning murdered the third rabid canine of the season, on the railroad beyond Merrimon's factory.

The dog was first seen chasing a cow in a field near the above named factory. Some boys first saw him and Mr. Lyon, being satisfied that the dog was rabid, armed himself with a stout hickory stick and gave chase. After running him for some distance down the railroad, Mr. Lyon overtook the canine, which was killed by a blow delivered from behind on the head.

The animal was a large spotted hound and was foaming at the mouth. It is not known whether the dog succeeded in biting the cow or not.

This is the third maddog killed here within a week, and it not being known how many other dogs or other animals they may have bitten, it is feared that the number will become unpleasantly large. Get your gun.

HAPPY SAILORS PASS HERE.

181 Jackies To Cruise Around The World On The Hartford.

A special train consisting of four Pullman and baggage coaches, bearing 181 sailors and petty officers, passed through Greensboro over the Southern about 10 o'clock last night. The sailors were from the gunboat Vermont and left New York last Friday for San Francisco, going by way of Norfolk and New Orleans.

At San Francisco they will man the wooden ship Hartford and start on a cruise around the world. They expect to complete the cruise aad return to New York in about a year. They were under command of Lieutenant Commander Sharpe, U. S. N.

The Novel Feature.

The band boys have arranged for a grand balloon ascension for tomorrow night at 10 sharp, accompanied by a shower of fireworks. Don't fail to get a throw at the negro head—the throws will be three for 5 cents—and hitting the head once will get a saucer of cream, twice two saucers, and three times two saucers and cake. So it is a nice game and one that will interest all.

Come and vote for the prettiest girl in the city—5 cents a vote. The lady getting the highest number of votes gets a handsome bouquet of flowers. Some other features will be had but you will see them when you arrive.

We have given orders for 50 gallons of Mr. West's best cream and 40 cakes. So don't be afraid you won't get any. Music all the time. Come one, come all.

A Crazy Negro.

An insolent, brainless negro made a nuisance of himself on lower Asheboro street Saturday night, visiting a number of houses and refusing to leave until "he got ready." At one place the "man of the house" waited for the negro's departure until "patience ceased to be a virtue," when, to enforce his demands that the rascal vamoose, he drew a pistol and fired. The ball missed its mark and still the negro refused to leave. It was then decided that he was crazy and five or six men formed a party to drive him away. He ran into the woods and has not returned.

THE NEW FRENCH MINISTRY

Presented to the Chamber of Deputies This Afternoon.

THE WHEREABOUTS OF DREYFUS

He is Yet on Board the Cruiser Sfox, And Will Probably Land At Baest Tonight.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, June 26—The new ministry presented themselves to the Chamber of Deputies this afternoon. The chamber was thronged, and great animation marked the opening of the session when it became known that two alleged hostile groups of socialists, radicals and democrats, had decided to vote in favor of the government, and that Paul Decassaguao had withdrawn his interpellations. Identical statements were read in the chamber by the premier and in the senate by Minister of Justice Mori Fellows. The Chamber of Deputies, in expressing itself' resolved not to support any government but one determined to defend energetically the republican institutions and assured the public that the new cabinet ministry has had its task clearly defined, and that there is no other ambition than to accomplish it. The senate, by a vote of 187 to 25, approved the declaration of the government.

WHEREABOUTS OF DREYFUS.

Paris, June 26—The Echo de Paris says the cruiser Sfax will probably land Dreyfus on the Breton coast tonight before reaching Brest. Eclaire on the other hand, says the Sfax is not expected to reach Brest until June 30th.

WATCHED BY DETECTIVES.

Brest, June 26—A large number of gendarmes from the country around here, are concentrating here today and are on guard throughout the city. The treasurer of the famous league, French Fatherland, arrived last night and is being closely watched. Wherever he goes a number of detectives follow, and if he is endeavoring to organize a demonstration, as is popularly believed, he is meeting with every obstruction short of actual arrest.

Washington, June 26—Otis replies as follows, in answer to the cablegram of the department asking for the situation:

"Owing to the rainy season there is little inland campaigning. We occupy a large portion of Tagolog country. Our lines stretch from Imus, in the south, to San Fernando, in the north, a distance of nearly sixty miles, and eastward into Laguna province. The insurgents have suffered great losses and are scattered. Only a large force of four thousand in Tarlac province and northern Pampagna. The scattered forces number probably about two thousand. WILL OLD MAN ALGER RETIRE?

Report That The War Secretary Will Resign.

A RECENT REVENUE RULING

In Regard to Manufacturers of Tobacco, Dealers in Leaf, Etc.— Other News.

Special to the TELEGRAM.

Washington, June 26—Secretary Alger returned to Washington last night. For the past three weeks he has been absent from the capital, most of the time being spent in the pine forests of Minnesota. As the secretary cou'd not be seen Sunday night, and refused to be interviewed by correspondents, there are no new developments in the Michigan senatorial contest. The interview of Governor Pingree has created much interest in Washington among supporters of President McKinley, and by most of the politicians is regarded as being untimely at least. The administration is known to be very favorable towards Senator McMillian, and has at least refrained from taking any step which might be construed in the least as opposition to his return to the United States senate. The senator has been a frequent visitor to the white house, and is on especially friendly terms with the president.

It is believed in official, and unofficial circles alike that the indiscreet interview of Governor Pingree, in which he made public the real position of Secretary Alger will result in the secretary's prompt retirement from the cabinet. The secretary it is said, realizes the position in which he has been placed, and will probably tender his resignation to President McKinley shortly after his return from the New England trip.

The retirement of the secretary from the cabinet will be especially agreeable to those who have looked upon him as responsible for the many mistakes of the war department since the outbreak of the hostilities with Spain, and the war with the Philippines, and will in the opinion of many who have been seen relieve the administration of one of the heaviest of its burdens.

Quite a large excursion party from points in the southern states, including Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia South Carolina and North Carolina, arrived in this city Saturday night, and went at once to the Metropolitan Hotel where quarters had been secured for them. The excursionists are young ladies, and will remain in Washington for several days this week. During their stay in Washington they will visit the executive departments, capitol, Washington monument, white house, and other points of national interest.

The commissioner of internal revenue has decided that persons engaged in business as manufacturers of tobacco, or cigars, or dealers in leaf tobacco, during the entire fiscal year ending June 30th, '99, and continuing business on and after July 1st, are required to pay special tax computed on the basis of their annual sales for the present fiscal year. Those persons who were not engaged in business during the entire fiscal year, but who continue in business on or after July 1st, may pay either the minimum, or the maximum rate of tax, as they may elect. If the aggregate monthly sales of persons paying the minimum rates at any time during the year exceed the limit for which they first paid special tax, they are required to make a newreturn and pay special tax at the higher rate from the first of July, or from the first day of the month in which they commenced business. Those persons who at first pay the higher rate, and it is ascertained at the close of the fiscal year that they have paid an amount in excess of their actual liability, will be permitted to make a claim for the amount so paid in excess.

General Heth, the famous ex-confederate officer, who has been very ill at his home in this city for several weeks, is reported to be in a precarious condition, and his relatives and friends are said to be of the opinion that he cannot last for more than a few days, and that the end may come at almost any moment.

It is said that a scheme is on foot for the testing before the United States supreme court, the validity of the act of congress by which that portion of Virginia originally ceded to the general government, was retroceded back to the state. Virginians say that it is in the interest of the real estate dealers, and they are convinced that if carried to the supreme court nothing will come of it.

Ex-Representative Thorp, of Virginia, was among the prominent Virginia people in the city the other day. He was here to attend a meeting of the state, in connection with the census positions.

Charles R. Gurkin has been appointed postmaster at Roanoke Rapids, Halifax county, North Carolina.

A DESERVED REBUKE.

Dr. Broughton, of Atlanta, is a bright man, but his pulpit sensationalism is condemned by the majority of Christian people. He tries to imitate Tom Dixon, and we are inclined to look upon his late frustration, when he tackled Mr. Hayward, as a most deserved rebuke.

We copy the following Cartersville, Ga, special to the Atlanta Constitution:

The jug ordinance, passed several months ago which prohibits on penalty any person, persons, corporation or company from shipping or bringing into the city liquor or other intoxicants and any common carrier from transporting them, is a lively issue, because of the likelihood of an early test of the solidity of the law, and the Atlanta evangelist, Dr. Broughton, attacking a prominent citizen, and it having been proven that in so doing he came in contact with a very live wire, has not served to put any taming touch to the situation.

It was only last week that J. B Heyward decided to order from Atlanta a jug of whiskey in defiance of the law, which he affirmed was unconstitutional. The package came by express and was delivered on its arrival. A case was made against Mr. Heyward and he will be tried before the mayor probably next week.

Dr. L. G. Broughton, who has been with Rev. Alex Bealer holding a meeting at the Baptist church, attacked Mr. Heyward, saying among other things, he ought to be in the infernal regions. Mr. Heyward, who a man of culture and a very caustic writer, wrote a letter to Dr. Broughton, which he headed with the request that it "be read to his audience before his next harangue."

Among the strongest paragraphs in the letter are these:

"Those who know me well, feel sure that you have reckoned without your host and made an ass of yourself.

"What do I think? Simply that you are one of the abnormal developments of mankind known as the nineteenth century evangelist, who, with plenty of brains without heart, plenty of nerve without culture, and plenty of zeal without piety, has all the usual stock in trade, viz: the insolence necessary to shock the pious, amaze the good and amuse the ignorant.

"Let me tell you; the normal forces of this world are directed by Christian men—creatures of your type have no conception of what constitutes the character."

The church being crowded to suffocation almost was partly, at least, due to the fact that it was stated that Dr. Broughton would read the letter and reply to it. The doctor, however, said to his congregation that "on reflection, he had decided not to read the letter, as the writer was unworthy of public notice." Mr. Hayward then had circulars containing the other and some further remarks printed and strewn broadcast over the town. For thus addressing the public and giving, as he says, "a copy of the letter I wrote Mr. L. G. Broughton in reply to his vilification of me in the pulpit" is because "he has, by advice of his friends, added insult to injury by lying about me. I further say that I would not have the public suppose that I would address a minister of the Gospel as above. Broughton is not a messenger of Christ, but a mountebank who carries in one hand all the duplicity of the avaricious sensationalist, and in the other all the malice of the foiled fanatic."

Then follows in the circular, among other matter, the following:

"His infinitesimal moral force renders him incapable of understanding my purpose in testing the city ordinance in question—that it is the feeling ingrained in my nature that 'eternal vigilance is the price of liberty.' That if the privileges of 10,000 American citizens can be thus trampled on by a petty municipal council who do not even profess free agency, the question arises, what will be next?

"Tyranny and priest-craft are the twin brothers, who have been the bane of the world since the year one; neither did the Christian dispensation slack their infernal efforts against freedom—freedom of conscience and the blood of the martyred Hugenots flows too blue in my veins not to scent their deviltry whether in the person of Romanist, Episcopalian, Baptist or Methodist. They are all alike. It is a matter of the ins and outs when it comes to the abuse of power.

"I yield to no man in my respect for the bearer of the message of Christ; but the blatant mountebank should remain within his proper environment—the circus.

"Inasmuch as the pulpit does not endow 'meekness of the dove and the wisdom of the serpent,' surely a fellow like Broughton of lionine locks and asinine ways, lacking in that 'charity' without which he is 'as sounding brass,' is only safe when he renders 'unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's, and unto God the things which are God's.'"

Dr. Broughton, for what reason he never stated, made no reply to the circular.

We do not presume to take Mr Hayward's side of the question—we are not discussing the question. Dr Broughton has a habit of using the sacred pulpit for his personal and sensational attacks upon individual men instead of the common "adversary," and this sample incident, in which he woke up the wrong passenger, resulted disastrously to the Dr. but pleasingly to many of his listeners.

The Man With the Hoe.

Bowed by the weight of centuries, he leans
Upon his hoe and gazes on the ground,
The emptiness of ages in his face.
And on his back the burden of the world,
Who made him dead to rapture and despair,
A thing that grieves not and that never hopes,
Stolid and stunned, a brother to the ox?
Who loosened and let down the brutal jaw?
Whose was the hand that slanted back this brow?
Whose brow blew out the light within this brain?
Is this the Thing the Lord God made and gave
To have dominion over sea and land,
To trace the stars and search the heavens for power;
To feel the passion of Eternity?
Is this the Dream He dreamed who shaped the suns
And pillared the blue firmament with light?
Down all the stretch of hell to its last gulf
There is no more terrible shape than this—
More tongued with censure of the world's blind greed—
More filled with signs and portents for the soul—
More fraught with menace to the universe.
What gulfs between him and the seraphim
Slave of the wheel of labor, what to him
Are Plato and the swing of Pleiades?
What the long reaches of the peaks of song,
The rift of dawn, the reddening of the rose?
Through this dread shape the suffering ages look;
Time's tragedy is in that aching stoop;
Through this dread shape humanity betrayed,
Plundered, profaned and disinherited,
Cries protest to the Judges of the World,
A protest that is also prophecy.
O, masters, lords and rulers in all lands,
Is this the handiwork you give to God,
This monstrous thing distorted and soul-quenched?
How will you ever straighten up this shape;
Give back the upward looking and the light;
Rebuild in it the music and the dream;
Touch it again with immortality;
Make right the immemorial infamies,
Perfidious wrongs, immedicable woes?
O, masters, lords and rulers in all lands,
How will the Future reckon with this Man?
How answer his brute question in that hour
When whirlwinds of rebellion shake the world?
How will it be with kingdoms and with kings—
With those who shaped him to the thing he is—
When this dumb terror shall reply to God
After the silence of the centuries?

—Edward W. Markham.

Cholera Morbus Quickly Cured.

"During the hot weather last summer I had a severe attack of cholera morbus, necessitating my leaving my business," says Mr. C. A. Hare, of Hare Bros., Fincastle, Ohio. "After taking two or three doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I was completely relieved and in a few hours was able to resume my work in the store. I sincerely recommend it to any one afflicted with stomach or bowel trouble. C. E. Holton, druggist.

KILLED AT A CROSSING.

A Tragedy Near Elizabeth City—Three Boys and Horse Killed.

Norfolk, June 24—At 3 o'clock this afternoon the Norfolk & Southern passenger train, when within one mile of Elizabeth City, N. C., dashed into a buggy, in which three boys were seated, killing all three, as well as the horse, and demolishing the buggy. The victims of the tragedy were Henry and William Mann, aged respectfully 14 and 10 years, sons of William Mann, and Charles Baker, aged 14, son of Richard Baker.

Physicians were hurried to the scene of the tragedy from Elizabeth City, but arrived too late. The Mann boys were killed instantly and the Baker boy, who was also struck, only lived one minute. Richard Mann, the elder son of Wm. Mann, was killed in a shingle mill ten months ago. He is now childless.

Elizabeth City, where the parents of the lads live and are very popular, is in gloom over the awful catastrophe. No blame attaches to the train men.

When Calling on Your Sweetheart

Be sure that your linen is well laundered. A man can look very "shoddy" and "cheap John" with yellow edges to his collars and cuffs and his shirt bosom yellow and dingy. Our work has a clear, white, even color. We do not claim to be the best, but we claim to be as good as any, and we challenge comparison with any laundry anywhere.

It's easy to convince an extravagant woman that man is made of dust.

Sympathy is the key to the human heart.—Chicago News.

DONT! WOMEN.

Don't write to a woman, when the roof leaks. Write to a carpenter. Don't write to a woman when the water pipe bursts. Write to a plumber. Don't write to a woman when you are sick, write to a doctor. But why such superfluous advice? Simply to call attention to the fact that "women" who are not qualified physicians offer medical advice, in advertisements worded in such a deceptive manner that you are apt to overlook the important fact that the woman is not a physician.

The great success of Dr. R. V. Pierce, in treating and curing diseases of women has led to imitations of his methods, especially his offer of a free consultation by letter to all sick women. At the head of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., and with an experience of over thirty years, Dr. Pierce has achieved the position of the chief of specialists in the treatment of woman's diseases. There is no living physician, male or female, who can show an equal record of over half-a-million women treated and ninety-eight per cent. of cures. Write to the doctor. Your letter will be read in private, answered in private and its statements held as sacredly confidential. To assure the exclusion of a third party from this correspondence, every letter is sent sealed in a plain envelope, bearing no advertising or printing upon it. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

RAW AS BEEF FROM ECZEMA!

No Torture Equal to the Itching and Burning of This Fearful Disease.

Not much attention is often paid to the first symptoms of Eczema, but it is not long before the little redness begins to itch and burn. This is but the beginning, and will lead to suffering and torture almost unendurable. It is a common mistake to regard a roughness and redness of the skin as merely a local irritation; it is but an indication of a humor in the blood—of terrible Eczema—which is more than skin-deep, and can not be reached by local applications of ointments, salves, etc., applied to the surface. The disease itself, the real cause of the trouble, is in the blood, although all suffering is produced through the skin; the only way to reach the disease, therefore, is through the blood.

Mr. Phil T. Jones, of Mixersville, Ind., writes:

"I had Eczema thirty years, and after a great deal of treatment my leg was so raw and sore that it gave me constant pain. It finally broke into a running sore, and began to spread and grow worse. For the past five or six years I have suffered untold agony and had given up all hope of ever being free from the disease, as I have been treated by some of the best physicians and have taken many blood medicines, all in vain. With little faith left I began to take S. S. S., and it apparently made the Eczema worse, but I knew that this was the way the remedy got rid of the poison. Continuing S. S. S., the sore healed up entirely, the skin became clear and smooth, and I was cured perfectly."

Eczema is an obstinate disease and can not be cured by a remedy which is only a tonic. Swift's Specific—

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

—is superior to other blood remedies because it cures diseases which they can not reach. It goes to the bottom—to the cause of the disease—and will cure the worst case of Eczema, no matter what other treatment has failed. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed to be free from potash, mercury or any other mineral, and never fails to cure Eczema, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison, Cancer, Tetter, Rheumatism, Open Sores, Ulcers, Boils, etc. Insist upon S. S. S.; nothing can take its place.

A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the houses. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my daughter much suffering.—Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

"How long have you kept summer boarders?"

The man from the city inquired.

"We kept one once for nearly a week,"

Said the wife of the farmer, mild and meek;

And the man from the city retired.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine, and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on C. E. Holton. druggist, and get a trial bottle free, Regular size 50 and $1. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded.

1,000 RECRUITS IN A WEEK.

No Trouble in Getting Up An Army For the Philippines.

Washington, June 24—Recruiting officials at the war department say the work is progressing with pleasing rapidity. Recruits have been received at the rate of 1,000 per week, for the past three weeks, and there are now at San Francisco about 5,000 recruits awaiting transportation to the Philippines. Many of these are old soldiers, and the others are being rapidly drilled and broken in.

The army is now practically recruited up to its legal maximum of 65,000 men, but it is understood that the recruiting at the present rate will be kept up for some time, or at least till the department receives further advices from General Otis.

THE SOUTHERN'S NEW DEAL.

Chicago, June 24—It is reported that a close traffic arrangement has been made between the Baltimore & Ohio and the Southern Railway. Under it the Southern will get an outlet at Baltimore and also a western connection at Chicago. In connection with the report, it is said that the Southern has for a long time past desired more direct connections with the West Indies, and those it can now make through the Baltimore gateway. It is also stated that the Southern had secured control of the Florida Central & Peninsular road, by which it secures a direct connection with Tampa, so as to complete the proposed route through to Cuba.

Saturday Night Offender.

Leslie Allen tanked up Saturday night and made himself obstreperous in Rhodes' barber shop on South Elm street. The head barber put him out without ceremony and he unfortunately fell into the hands of a policeman, who carried him to the lock-up. He secured his liberty yesterday.

Perry Bradford, a hobo by profession, was locked up night by Officer Jeffries. County roads next stop.

Benbow Ruins Blaze.

After eight days of slow burning, fire yesterday broke through some of the debris in the ruins of the Benbow House, and, fanned by a gentle wind, was burning briskly when discovered by Chief of Police Scott. The officer, with the assistance of two citizens, soon extinguished the fire with buckets of water.

The flames were on the second floor and had gradually eaten their way through the partly-charred timbers and trash and had it been allowed to burn a short while longer the fire department would most probably have been necessary again.
